The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 25. to Saturday October 29. 1720.

By the Lords Juſtices,

A PROCLAMATION,

W. Cant. Parker C. Holles Newcaſtle, Bolton, Roxburghe, J. Craggs.

Requiring Quarentine to be performed by Ships coming from the Mediterranean, Bourdeaux, or any of the Ports or Places on the Coaſt of France in the Bay of Biſcay, or from the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sarke, or Man.

WHEREAS Marſeilles and other Places in Provence in France continue to be infected with the Plague; and whereas we have received Information that Kid-Skins, Silk, Cotton, Human Hair, and other Goods apt to retain Infection, are uſually brought from Languedoc and Parts thereabouts to Bourdeaux and other Places in the Bay of Biſcay on the Coaſt of France; and that Ships and Veſſels with Perſons and Goods on board coming from the Mediterranean and Places on the Coaſt of France in the Bay of Biſcay, frequently touch at the Iſles of Jerſey, and Guernſey, Alderney, Sarke, and Man; and that a Trade is carried on by the Inhabitants of thoſe Iſles with the ſeveral Places above named, and with Ships which have touched there, in Goods apt to retain Infection: And whereas we have judged it neceſſary for the Safety of His Majeſty's Subjects, to make ſome Additions to, and Alterations in the Directions given concerning the Performance of Quarentine by our ſeveral Orders in Council of the twenty fifth of Auguſt laſt, and the twelfth of this Inſtant October, and the Proclamations notifying the ſame; we out of our great Care for the Preſervation of His Majeſty's People, and to prevent the Infection that might be brought by Ships or Veſſels coming into the Ports of this Kingdom from any of the ſaid Places, by Order in Council made this twenty ſeventh Day of October, one thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty, in the ſeventh Year of His Majeſty's Reign, have directed and required that all Ships and Veſſels, and Perſons coming in the ſame, from the Mediterraneah, or from Bourdeaux, or any of the Ports or Places on the Coaſt of France in the Bay of Biſcay, or from the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sarke, and Man, or any of them, ſhall perform their Quarentine in ſuch manner and in ſuch Places as in and by the ſaid Order are directed: Now to the Intent that no Perſon may pretend Ignorance of our Command therein, we have thought fit, by and with the Advice of His Majeſty's Privy-Council, and we do by this Proclamation, purſuant to an Act made in the ninth Year of Her late Majeſty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act to oblige Ships, coming from Places infected, more effectually to perform their Quarentine, give Notice of the ſaid Order, and do require, that all Perſons do yield exact Obedience to the ſame, viz.

I. That all Ships or Veſſels arriving in any Ports of this Kingdom from the Mediterranean, or from Bourdeaux, or any of the Ports or Places on the Coaſt of France in the Bay of Biſcay, or from the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sarke, and Man, or any of them, do perform their Quarentine for forty Days, which ſhall be reckoned and commence from the Day each Ship ſhall come to Anchor in the Place appointed for the performing ſuch Quarentine, and not before.

II. That the Places for performing Quarentine within any Part of Great Britain, be ſuch Places as already are or ſhall be appointed by the Officers of His Majeſty's

(Price Three Half-Pence.)

Majeſty's Cuſtoms in ſuch Ports, who are impowered and required to appoint proper Places for the ſame. But all Ships and Veſſels, required to perform Quarentine, which ſhall be bound to any Port or Place between the Ports of London or Briſtol, other than the Ports of Portſmouth, Plymouth, or Falmouth, ſhall, inſtead of going to the Port or Place of Diſcharge, go to ſuch of the Ports above-named, of London, Portſmouth, Plymouth, Falmouth, and Briſtol, as ſhall be neareſt to the reſpective Places of Diſcharge, to which ſuch Ships or Veſſels ſhall be reſpectively bound, and no other, there to perform their Quarentine, in the proper Places to be for that Purpoſe appointed within the Ports aforeſaid.

III. That until Quarentine ſhall be fully performed, as aforeſaid, no Perſon coming, or Goods imported in any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall go, or be put on board any other Ship or Veſſel, or ſhall come on Shore, or be landed in any Place within this Kingdom.

IV. That no Pilot ſhall go on board any Ship or Veſſel obliged to perform Quarentine, in order to conduct the ſame into any Port or Place, but ſhall perform ſuch Service in ſome other Boat or Veſſel, which Boat or Veſſel ſhall keep as much to the Windward of the Ship or Veſſel, ſo to be conducted, as poſſible; and if any Pilot or other Perſon ſhall go on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſuch Pilot or other Perſon ſhall perform Quarentine in like manner as any other Perſon coming in ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall be obliged to perform the ſame.

V. That if at the Expiration of the Quarentine hereby directed to be made, there ſhall appear to the Officers of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms in the reſpective Places where ſuch Ships ſhall be, and the Maſter or other Perſons taking Charge of ſuch Ships or Veſſels, together with two other Perſons belonging to the ſaid Ship or Veſſel, ſhall make Oath before the Cuſtomer, Comptroller or Collector of the Port where ſuch Quarentine ſhall be performed, or the next Port thereunto, or before any of their Deputies, and any one Juſtice of the Peace near adjoining to ſuch Port, that ſuch Ship, and all and every Perſon and Perſons therein, have duly performed their Quarentine, as aforeſaid, and that the Ship or Veſſel, and all the Perſons on board, are free from Infection, that then the reſpective Perſons coming in ſuch Ships, (a Certificate of ſuch Oath being made by the Perſons before whom the ſame ſhall be taken) ſhall be permitted to go on Shore; but the Goods imported in ſuch Ships or Veſſels ſhall be landed, opened, and aired, and ſo remain a Week, and after may be brought to their Places of Diſcharge, other than Hemp and Flax, Paper or Books, Silk raw, thrown, or wrought, Linnen, Cotton-Wooll, Cotton in Yarn, or manufactured, Wooll raw, or in any wiſe wrought, Feathers, Grograin, or Mohair Yarn, Human Hair, Goats Hair, or Carmenia Wooll, Carpets, Camblets, Burdets, or other Manufactures of Silk and Cotton, Kid-skins, and Skins in the Wooll, or Hair; which the Officers of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms ſhall cauſe to remain on board ſuch Ships or Veſſels, and not permit to be landed till an Account thereof ſhall be given to His Majeſty in Council, and Orders ſhall be given by His Majeſty concerning the ſame.

VI. That the Places of landing and airing the Goods imported from the Mediterranean, Bourdeaux, or any other the Ports or Places on the Coaſt of France in the Bay of Biſcay, or from the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sarke, and Man, or any of them, into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, ſhall be ſuch Places as have been or ſhall be reſpectively appointed by His Majeſty's Officers of the Cuſtoms.

VII. And whereas Kid skins and Human Hair are moſt liable to retain Infection, and may be brought from Places infected into other Countries, and from thence imported into Great Britain, to the great Hazard of the Health of His Majeſty's Subjects; it is further ordered, that all Kid-skins and Human Hair imported into Great Britain, in any Ship or Veſſel not obliged to perform Quarentine, ſhall be put and detained in ſuch Place or Places as ſhall be appointed for that Purpoſe by the Officers of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms for any Port into which ſuch Goods ſhall be imported, and ſhall not be opened or removed till an Account ſhall be given to His Majeſty in Council, and Orders ſhall be given by His Majeſty concerning the ſame.

VIII. That whatever Ship or Perſon ſhall receive any Men or Goods from on board any Ship or Veſſel under Quarentine, ſhall be compelled to do the like Quarentine.

IX. That ſuch Perſons as, after Quarentine performed, ſhall be employed in the Hold of any ſuch Ship, for the taking taking any Goods not liable to retain Infection from Hemp and Flax, Paper or Books, Silk raw, thrown and wrought, Linnen, Cotton-Wooll, Cotton-Yarn, or manufactured, Wooll raw, or in any wife wrought, Feathers, Grograins, or Mohair Yarn, Human Hair, Goats Hair, or Carmenia Wooll, Carpets, Camblets, Burdets, or other Manufactures of Silk and Cotton, Kid-skins, Skins in the Wooll, or Hair thereon, ſhall be obliged to perform a new Quarentine.

X. That the Captains of every of His Majeſty's Ships of War, who ſhall meet any ſuch Ships coming into any Ports of this Kingdom, ſhall take due Care to prevent the landing any Goods, Seamen, or Paſſengers therein, until they ſhall be put under the Direction of His Majeſty's Officers of the Cuſtoms.

XI. That the Commiſſioners and other Officers of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms do uſe their utmoſt Diligence and Care that the Quarentine, before directed, be duly performed.

And we do hereby ſtrictly charge and command all Perſons whatſoever, that ſhall come into any of the Ports of this Kingdom from the Mediterranean, or from Bourdeaux, or any of the Ports or Places on the Coaſt of France in the Bay of Biſcay, or from the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sarke, and Man, or any of them, that they do make their Quarentine according to our Order herein before expreſſed; and that, during the time of their Quarentine, they do not preſume to come or put any Goods out of ſuch Ships on Shore, nor on board any other Ship or Veſſel, nor permit or ſuffer any Perſon to come on board ſuch Ships; and that no Perſons, other than ſuch as ſhall have obtained a Licence in Writing under the Hand of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be appointed to take Care to ſee ſuch Quarentine duly performed, ſhall go on board, nor ſhall any Perſon receive any Goods from ſuch Ships, till they ſhall be diſcharged from their Quarentine, as herein before directed, upon Pain of being proceeded againſt with the utmoſt Severity that the Law will allow of, for diſobeying our Commands herein, ſo neceſſary for ſecuring the Lives of His Majeſty's Subjects. And we do hereby command the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, that they do take Care and give the neceſſary Directions, that the ſaid Order be put in Execution, and duly obſerved. And we do likewiſe ſtrictly charge and command the Commanders of His Majeſty's Ships of War, the Commanders of His Majeſty's Forts and Garriſons lying near His Majeſty's Sea-Coaſts, and all His Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Chief Magiſtrates, Conſtables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, and all other Officers and Miniſters of Juſtice, to be aiding and aſſiſting to the Officers of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, and to all other Perſons that ſhall be concerned in ſtopping Ships coming from the Mediterranean, or from Bourdeaux, or any of the Ports or Places on the Coaſt of France in the Bay of Biſcay, or from the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sarke, and Man, or any of them, and bringing them to the Places appointed for them, and obliging them to perform their Quarentine, in the due Execution of our Commands herein.

And whereas a moſt pernicious Trade is carried on by many of His Majeſty's Subjects by clandeſtinely importing Goods from Parts beyond the Sea, to the great prejudice of his Majeſty's Revenue, and in Defiance of His Majeſty's Laws, which may prove highly detrimental to the Health of His Majeſty's People during this time of Infection abroad, we do hereby ſtrictly charge and command all His Majeſty's Officers and Miniſters whatſoever, to take Care that the Laws againſt ſuch illegal Practices be put in Execution with the utmoſt Rigour.

And we do hereby charge, forewarn, and require all His Majeſty's loving Subjects of what Degree or Condition ſoever, not to be aiding and aſſiſting to, or to hold any Correſpondence with any Perſons uſing ſuch Practices, nor to buy, receive, or take into their Cuſtody any Goods ſo clandeſtinely and unduly Run and Imported, but on the contrary to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to oppoſe and reſiſt all Perſons concerned in ſuch unlawful Attempts, not only on Pain of incurring His Majeſty's higheſt Diſpleaſure, and the ſevere Penalties provided by Law againſt ſuch Offences, but as they tender their own Safety, and the Preſervation of the Welfare and Safety of their Country.

Given at Whitehall the Twenty ſeventh Day of October, 1720. in the Seventh Year of His Majeſty's Reign.

God ſave the King.

Lisbon, Oct. 15. N. S. An Expreſs is arrived here in 7 Days from Cadiz, and another in 5 from Faro. They have brought to this Court the following Account of the Imbarkation which was getting ready to ſail from the Bay of Cadiz for Africa, viz. A Man of War of 80 Guns, another of 74, and a third of 64; two ſmall Frigates, ſix Gallies, forty Tranſport-Ships and four Hundred open Boats to carry the Stores of Ammunition and Proviſions. On this Expedition are employed, the Marqueſs de Lede Captain General, Don Joſeph Patinno Commiſſary-General of the Stores, 18000 Foot, and 4000 Horſe; having with them 600 Mules for the Train of Artillery, 84 Pieces of Braſs Cannon for Battery, 25 leſſer Pieces, 36 Mortars, 400 Waggons, 10000 Spades, and 10000 Faſcines.

Paris, Nov. 2. M. Vernezobre, one of the Commis of the Bank, who has made great Gains in the India Company, having retired out of the Kingdom; and it being apprehended that many others will do the ſame, in order to elude the Injunctions of the late Arrêt concerning the Actions of that Company; Orders have been diſpatched to all the Ports and Frontier-Places to ſtop all ſuch Perſons as are ſuſpected to be going into foreign Countries; and a Placard is publiſhed forbidding on Pain of Death any one to attempt to go out of the Kingdom without a Paſſport ſigned by the King, and counterſigned by a Secretary of State. Purſuant to the Directions of the late Arrêt, thoſe concerned in the Actions have begun to carry them to the Bank, in order to have a new Seal put upon them; and Intimations have already been given to ſeveral of thoſe who have been great Gainers by them, what Number of Actions it is expected they ſhould depoſite in the Hands of the Company, which 'tis ſaid in all will amount to ten Millions of Livres. The King has lately been indiſpoſed, but his Majeſty having taken a little Phyſick, is perfectly well again. Letters from ſeveral Parts of Provence confirm the ſpreading of the Plague more and more, and the great Devaſtation it makes in a great many Places of that Country; where they have not on that Account been able to gather in their Vintage, or their Olives, and are already in want of all manner of Neceſſaries and Aſſiſtance in their Sickneſs.

Whitehall, Oct. 29. This Morning arrived one of the King's Meſſengers from Hanover, (which Place he left on the 22d Inſtant,) with Advice, that His Majeſty had fixed Thurſday laſt for the Day of His Departure from thence for Great-Britain. This Meſſenger ſays, that he ſailed from Helvoetſluys laſt Thurſday Morning, and left there the Earl of Sunderland and Sir George Byng; who having been detained 11 Days by contrary Winds, had once put to Sea to endeavour to paſs over to England in the William and Mary Yacht, but had been driven back by Streſs of Weather, having been in ſome Danger; and that they waited only for a Wind to put to Sea again.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury do hereby give Notice, that for ſupporting the Credit and Currency of all the Exchequer Bills now bearing an Intereſt after the Rate of one Penny per Cent. per Diem, they have, by an Inſtrument under their Hands and Seals, declared and appointed, that from and after the 8th of October 1720, all the Exchequer Bills prepared and made forth by virtue of the Acts of Parliament in that behalf, ſhall (over and above the Intereſt of one Penny per Cent. per Diem therein contained) be attended with an additional Intereſt, after the Rate of one Penny per Cent. per Diem; and that as well the principal Sums and Intereſt of one Penny per Cent. per Diem contained in the ſaid Bills, as the ſaid additional Intereſt, to attend the ſame ſhall be demandable by the Bearers, and be payable, as if the ſame Bills had been originally prepared, made forth, or iſſued, with the intire Intereſt of two Pence per Cent per Diem, expreſſed and contained therein, except only when they, or any of them, ſhall be in the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer, or in the Hands or Power of any Receivers or Collectors of any Taxes, Aids, or Revenues whatſoever, payable to His Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, during ſuch time or times reſpectively as ſuch Bills ſhall be and remain in the ſaid Receipt, or in ſuch Hands or Power as aforeſaid. And the Governour and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas, &c have, by an Inſtrument under the Common Seal of the ſaid Company, declared their Conſent and Approbation to the ſaid additional Intereſt, and obliged themſelves to pay from time to time their Proportion of Money, for or towards exchanging, circulating, diſcharging, or ſupporting the Credit of the ſaid Bills with the ſaid Intereſt and additional Intereſt thereupon, as if the ſaid Intereſt of two Pence per Cent. per Diem were expreſly contained in the Bodies of the ſaid Bills.

General Poſt-Office, London, Oct. 19, 1720.

Whereas the Weſt Mail coming to this Office, was Yeſterday Morning, between 4 and 5 a-Clock, robbed by three Highwaymen, at a Place called the Foot of Toomer Hill, about 3 Miles from Sherborn, in the County of Dorſet, and ſeveral Letters taken out of the Exeter, Taunton, St. Columb, and Crewkern Bags: Theſe are therefore to give Notice, that whoever apprehends the ſaid Perſons concerned in this Robbery, or either of them, ſo as to have him or them convicted of the ſame, ſhall receive a Reward of 100 l. to be paid by the Receiver-General of the Poſt-Office in London, over and above the Reward directed by Act of Parliament, for apprehending of Highwaymen: And if either of the ſaid Perſons concerned in the ſaid Robbery, will diſcover one or both of his Accomplices in the Manner aforeſaid, he ſhall have the ſaid Reward of 100 l. and alſo His Majeſty's Pardon.

General Poſt-Office, London, Oct. 19, 1720.

Whereas the Weſt and Briſtol Mails have of late been frequently robbed, and ſeveral Bank Notes and Bills taken out of them, and no Diſcovery made of the Perſons who committed the ſaid Robberies, though the utmoſt Care has been taken to diſcover the ſame: For the better preventing ſuch evil Practiſes for the future, all Merchants and others, who ſend any Bills, or Notes, to, or from London, are deſired to make all ſuch Bills, and Notes, payable three Days after Sight, that timely Notice may be given to ſtop Payment of the ſaid Bills and Notes ſo ſtolen.

General Poſt-Office, London, Oct. 24, 1720.

Whereas the Briſtol Mail coming to this Office was robbed Yeſterday Morning between One and Two a-Clock, on the Road four Miles on this Side Briſtol, by one Highwayman and one Foot-pad, who carried off the Mail, in which was only the Briſtol Bag. Theſe are therefore to give Notice, that whoever apprehends the ſaid Perſons concerned in this Robbery, or either of them, ſo as to have him or them convicted of the ſame, ſhall receive a Rea Reward of 100 l. to be paid by the Receiver-General of the Poſt-Office in London, over and above the Reward directed by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; and if either of the ſaid Perſons concerned in the ſaid Robbery will diſcover his Accomplice in the Manner aforeſaid, he ſhall receive the ſaid Reward of 100 l. and alſo His Majeſty's Pardon.

Notice is hereby given, that the Commiſſioners for building the fifty new Churches, will be ready to receive Propoſals on Thurſday next, at their Office in the Old Palace-Yard, in Weſtminſter, from Diggers and Bricklayers, for building a new Church in Great George-Street, near Hanover-Square, in the Pariſh of St. Martin's in the Fields.

This is to give Notice to all Maſters and Commanders of Ships and Veſſels, paſſing by Dover Harbour, that on the 10th of October 1720, there will be erected on the South Pier Head of the ſaid Harbour, a Lanthorn Light by Night, and a Flag hoiſted by Day, ſo ſoon as there ſhall be ten Foot Water on the Flood between the Pier Heads, and to continue until the Water is decreaſed on the Ebb to ten Foot, and then the ſaid Light will be put out, or the ſaid Flag ſtruck, and this will be done all the Year round; the ſame Harbour being now very commodious for the Reception of trading Ships and Veſſels, there being 13 Foot Water on Neap Tides, and upwards of 18 Foot on common Spring Tides.

A General Quarterly Court of the Corporation of the Amicable Society for a perpetual Aſſurance-Office, will be held at their Office in Hatton-Gardon, on Thurſday the 3*d of November next, at Ten in the Forenoon; and all Members of the ſaid Corporation who are five Quarters in Arrear, will be excluded at the ſaid Court.*
